The Hearthside Bank Story

Hearthside Bank is a true community bank that embodies a unique blend of innovation and tradition. Since 1920, we have dedicated ourselves to serving the needs of our customers in the southeastern Kentucky and northeastern Tennessee area. We have 7 offices throughout Middlesboro, Harlan, Harrogate, New Tazewell, Jacksboro, and a loan production office in Knoxville. A combination of our sophisticated financial products and hometown friendliness creates the Hearthside Bank experience.

At Hearthside Bank, we listen to our customers and place an emphasis on quality banking products and services. From loans and deposits to online banking, bill pay and mobile banking, we have the right products for you. We focus on building long-term relationships and serve as advisors to our banking partners in offering both traditional banking products and specialized financial services. Let our Relationship Bankers help you with your banking needs.

Hearthside Bank is one of the top financial institutions in the area. As we keep abreast of current financial trends, we are constantly finding new ways to better serve you, our customers.

Our Mission: We deliver the ultimate banking experience.

Our Vision: To build relationships with customers, employees and communities while providing personal service and advanced technology.
